ACTS 16:22-34

MESSAGE BY
PASTOR JONATHAN RIDDLE

Even Though....I Will Rejoice: Miracle Past Midnight – February 2022

Even Though...I Will Rejoice is a series about the ups and downs of our daily lives. We wake up and life could not be better and by the time we go to bed our life could not be worse. What does it mean to wrestle with God in moments that cause us to be stretched? Is it possible that He allows things that cause us to admit that our definition of Him is too small?

Read Acts 16:22-34, John 16:1-15

1. Paul & Silas were taking the Gospel to the world. What kind of resistance did they meet?
2. Pastor Riddle talked about 'The Gospel' and that "We are more sinful and flawed in ourselves than we ever dared believe, yet at the very same time we are more loved and accepted in Jesus Christ than we ever dared hope." What does this mean to you?
3. One of Jonathan's points was "No matter our circumstances we can always choose to praise God." Can you give examples of this in your life?
4. "Everything we do teaches." The prisoners and jailer were closely watching Paul & Silas, and how they conducted their lives gave witness to who God is. Do you feel like Christians and the church are conducting their lives in a way that gives witness to "The Gospel"?
5. What can you do to be a part of witnessing to the world who Jesus Christ is through love & sacrifice?

Point to Ponder: Do people know you as a follower of Jesus Christ, or do they know you better for a life apart from faith- sports, politics, philosophical ideologies?
